

Transfer of a EU Blue Card to a new passport

Do you have an EU Blue Card and have you received a new passport?

Then (only) the plastic card of your EU Blue Card residence permit is no longer valid, since this plastic card refers to your old passport. However, your residence title EU Blue Card is still valid.

Please read the following notes before booking an appointment.

Is your EU Blue Card only valid for a maximum of a further 6 months?

If so, please do not attend the Berlin Immigration Office before it is necessary to extend your EU Blue Card. This will save you time and money.

Are you wanting to travel abroad?

If no appointments are available at short notice, you can still travel abroad.

Re-entry to Germany is easy, if your EU Blue Card residence permit is still valid and you still have the old passport.

Take your old and new passports and your EU Blue Card with you on your trip.

However, we recommend that you enquire about the entry and exit conditions of the country you are visiting before you travel abroad (for example at the embassy of the country you are visiting).

Prerequisites

Main residence in Berlin

Personal appearance by appointment is required

Transfers are made at the Citizens' Registration Offices or at the Berlin Immigration Office generally only with an appointment.

Transfer in a Bürgeramt

You can generally have the transfer carried out at any Berlin Citizens Registration Office (Bürgeramt), as long as the following requirements are met:

- * You have your old, full passport together with the valid EU Blue Card.
- * The EU Blue Card was issued in Berlin.
- * Your old passport is complete.
- * There is no more than 12 months between the expiry date of the old passport and the date of issue of the new passport.
- * You have not resided outside the federal territory for a continuous period longer than 12 months.

Transfer in the Berlin Immigration Office

If one of the above mentioned requirements for making the transfer at the Citizens Registration Office (Bürgeramt) is not met (e.g. old passport is no longer present, the EU Blue Card was not issued in Berlin) the Berlin Immigration Office is responsible for the transfer.
