Permanent settlement permit for qualified skilled workers

If your residence permit has been issued for employment as a qualified skilled worker, you may be granted a permanent settlement permit after 4 years.

If you have completed vocational training or a degree in Germany, this is already possible after 2 years of employment as a qualified skilled worker.

Do you have an EU Blue Card?

Then other requirements apply. Please inform yourself in the service "Permanent settlement permit for EU Blue Card holders" (see section "More information").

Prerequisites

- 4 years holding a residence permit for employment as a qualified skilled worker
 - You must have had a residence permit for employment as a qualified skilled worker with a professional qualification, an academic degree or in research for at least 4 years (pursuant to section 18a, 18b or 18d Aufenthaltsgesetz).
 - The minimum time is reduced to 2 years if you have successfully completed vocational training or a degree in Germany.
- You are still employed as a qualified skilled worker
- Old-age provision
 - You must furnish proof of having paid compulsory or voluntary contributions to the statutory German Pension Fund for at least 48 months, or of entitlement to comparable benefits by another insurance or pension institution.
 - If you have successfully completed vocational training or a degree in Germany, 24 months are sufficient.
- Sufficient knowledge of German
