

INFORMATION SHEET
on artist-in-residence stipends of the federal state of Berlin for 2022/2023
Music – Paris

Subject to the availability of funds, Berlin's Senate Department for Culture and Europe will award up to two artist-in-residence stipends in music (serious music, sound art, jazz) for study programmes in Paris in collaboration with the Cité Internationale des Arts (<http://www.citedesartsparis.net>):

- 1 stipend for 6 months – April to the end of September 2022 and/or
- 1 stipend for 6 months – October 2022 to the end of March 2023

Target group

The funding is provided for professionally working visual artists who live in Berlin with their first residence. Artists who are enrolled at a university or who have a permanent professorship cannot apply. Former cultural exchange fellows whose stay abroad ended two years ago, (September 2019) can apply again.

Purpose of funding

The stipends are intended to support the artistic development of professional artists. The aim of the residency is to give them the opportunity to gain a deeper understanding of and insight into the culture of the host country, study trends in the local art scene, make contacts, exchange ideas, gain inspiration and carry out an artistic project in the host country. To this end, the foreign partner institution will provide studio flats for Berlin artists on a regular basis.

Funding volume

Berlin's Senate Department for Culture and Europe will pay a monthly lump sum of €2,500 as a stipend to the selected artists (for travel to the place of residency and back, materials, living costs) and provide them with studio flats at the place of residency. Berlin's Senate Department for Culture and Europe will pay yearly studio and programme fees directly to the partner institution. During the residency, the partner institution will assist the guest artists and establish contacts with the local art scene on request. The branch office in Paris of the Goethe-Institut is likewise available for contact. The events organised by the partner institutions (open studios, exhibitions, artist talks) provide the Berlin artists with an opportunity to present their work to an international audience. Given that the partner institutions accept no responsibility for the Berlin artists' luggage, personal belongings and works, Berlin's Senate Department for Culture and Europe recommends taking out relevant insurance for travelling abroad.

Prerequisites

Funding is available for artists who have a track record of outstanding work which they can prove by providing samples of their work. They should have some knowledge of the host country's language when beginning their residency abroad. They are obliged to be present at the designated place during the residency.

All stipends of the state of Berlin (work, research and cultural exchange stipends) can be combined up to an amount of €24,000 per year.

Allocation of funding

An independent jury of different experts nominated each year by Berlin's Senate Department for Culture and Europe will select a shortlist of candidates, while the final choice is made by the partner institution abroad.

The names of the artists and groups who will receive funding will be made public.

The jury will be consisting of the following members:
Franziska Buhre, Dr. Elena Agudio, Inga Seidler, Joana Tischkau and Marcel Kloppenburg.
