ENERGY ADVICE CENTRES OFFER SOLUTIONS

Many consumers currently don't know how they are going to pay their energy bills. Berlin's energy advisers answer your questions and find solutions together with you.

The advice centres can help you if you are facing a massive increase in your instalment payments, an energy cut-off or want to know how you can save energy in your everyday life.

ADVICE PROTECTS AGAINST ENERGY CUT-OFFS

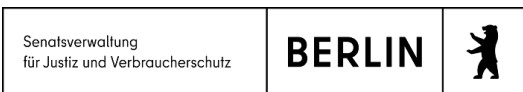

There is a comprehensive range of energy advice services in Berlin - from consumer advice centres to social welfare organisations.

On our website berlin.de/verbraucherschutz, we have compiled all the important information for you on the subject of energy advice. You will also find the contact details of energy advice centres in Berlin here.

Make the most of the offer. By getting advice in good time, you can avoid energy debts and cut-offs.
