Milestone Reached in the ICC Concept Proposal Process: Recommendation for the Future of the ICC Presented

As part of the ICC concept proposal process for the future use of the ICC, an official recommendation has now been made. The vision is to transform the ICC into a globally unique hub for the arts, culture, and creative industries.

The official procurement process was launched in November 2024. Following several successful stages, Franziska Giffey, Mayor and Senator for Economic Affairs, Energy and Public Enterprises, together with Birgit Möhring, CEO of Berliner Immobilienmanagement GmbH (BIM), and Christian Gaebler, Senator for Urban Development, Building and Housing, will present the outcome of the procurement process on 24 June.

In addition, the project partnership recommended for the future process will introduce itself to the public for the first time and present its plans for development of the ICC.

Media representatives are cordially invited:

Date: Wednesday, 24 June 2026, 12:00-13:30
